Dear Mr. Weisberg:

It was a pleasure speaking with you on the telephone this afternoon.

About seven years ago I became interested in the Kennedy Assassination. Since that time I've read numerous books on the subject. Some, of course, are more believable than others. All books I've read indicate you are a most credible researcher.

I wonder if you would be so kind as to send me a recommended reading list. Since it is sometimes difficult to know what is truth and what is fantasy in this case, I'd appreciate your advice.

Again, thank you for all your hard work. I look forward to hearing from you and to reading all your books and articles.

Yours truly,

Ron
